

4-H Club Historian

Below is a review of your basic responsibilities. Make sure you have a discussion with your adult leader for any additional responsibilities they may have for you.

- You will be responsible for clipping all news articles about your club from the newspaper. You also want to keep all correspondence that your club receives; this would include award certificates, and thank you notes.
- You will work with the reporter to make sure photographs are taken of all club events.
- You will work with the secretary to record the history of your club for the year. Items to include may be photographs, news articles, club correspondences, awards, certificates, and any other memorabilia.
- Discuss with other officer's which form of history recording that your club wants to do. Some choices may include the following:
 - A) Scrapbook
 - B) Poster Collage
 - C) Computer CD
 - D) Historian supplies the picture and the club supplies the materials and at a meeting each member completes their own scrapbook page using their pictures. The Historian then completes the group pictures that are not individuals.
 - E) Any other ideas your club may have.
- These items will be treasured by current and future members. Be organized and creative to make something special.

Other duties may include:

During the fair your club is permitted to enter an educational exhibit and the club receives $25 if you receive a blue ribbon. You need to ask your Leader who does this currently for your club. If your Leader agrees, you can chair the committee that creates this exhibit.
